The Dean of Women/Vice Principal will interpret the girls' dress code to determine compliance with the uniform policy, as the above list does not address all variations.

Girls - Dress Up Day Dress Code

Modesty is a virtue implicit in a Catholic school dedicated to our Blessed Mother, and should be the measure of the appropriateness of dress for an IHC Dress-Up Day, May Crowning, and Prom etc.

1. Dress or skirt should be mid-knee length or longer. Dresses and blouses are worn conventionally which includes no midriff exposure. (Sundresses, spaghetti straps, strapless dresses, see through etc. are not permitted.)
2. Ankle/Knee Socks/Stockings or Tights
3. Shoes – dress shoes or loafer style shoes, no sneakers, or slipper type shoes. No boots or flip flops.
4. No denim or denim-look fabric The Dean of Women/Vice Principal will interpret the girls' dress code to determine compliance with the uniform policy, as the above list does not address all variations.

Boys - Dress Up Day Dress Code

1. Dress pants, dress shirt, tie, shoes and ankle socks, and either a sport coat or a school v-neck sweater
OR
2. Dress pants, turtleneck, shoes and ankle socks, and either a sport coat or a school crew neck sweater.

The Dean of Men/Vice Principal will interpret the boys' dress code to determine compliance with the uniform policy, as the above list does not address all variations.

Physical Education / Sports Dress Code –

T-shirt, appropriate athletic shorts/pants, and sneakers.

All students are to wear shirts at all time while participating in sporting activities. If a girl is wearing a tank top or mesh top, a t-shirt must be worn under the tank top or mesh shirt. The undergarment shall not be visible.

Athletic Dress Code

1. Athletic jersey (baseball, lacrosse, soccer, and softball) may be worn on Friday of each week during the appropriate season.
2. Each team may request a specific athletic dress for their team and submit it to the administration for prior approval. The administration will allow a relaxed dress code when deemed appropriate. Dress code violations will be referred to the appropriate Dean.
